RULING

Before the court is Defendant Meland's June 1, 2015 Expedited Motion Requesting 60 Day Extension of Time to Extend Scheduling Order Disclosure of Expert Witness Reports Until August 1, 2015. Plaintiff has filed a response. The court will rule on an expedited basis as requested rather than wait for a reply.

Plaintiff has had ample time to find an appraisal expert. She claims she has not retained an expert until now because she has not had the money. This is not a valid reason for extending the scheduling order. The scheduling order was entered many months ago and, if Plaintiff wanted to hire an expert, she has had ample time to prepare to meet the deadline. In addition, there is no indication in the Motion that Plaintiff has even found an expert who is willing and able do the work by August 1, 2015. Good cause has not been shown to extend the scheduling order deadlines.

IT IS ORDERED denying the Motion.
